Article 6
Form of the shares

The fully paid up shares shall be registered or bearer shares, at the shareholder's election.

The partly paid up shares may be bearer shares only after full payment.

The ownership of the shares, regardless of their form, results from their registration in the name of the holder(s) in the registers and accounts opened and kept pursuant to the laws in force:

- for registered securities, by the Company or an agent appointed for such purpose,
- for bearer securities, by a financial intermediary authorized by the Minister of Economy and Finances.

The Company or the authorized intermediaries who are bookkeepers deliver to any holder of a securities account requesting so and at his costs a certificate specifying the nature, number of securities registered in his account and mentions included therein.

The Company is entitled to request, at any time, against a remuneration assumed by it, to the body in charge of the clearing of the bearer securities, the name or, in case of a legal entity, the corporate name, nationality and address of the holders of securities granting immediately or in the future a voting right in its own shareholders' meetings, as well as the quantity of securities held by each of them and the restrictions relating to the securities, if any.

The Company has the possibility to request to legal entities, owners of its shares and having more than 2.5 % of the capital or voting rights, to inform it of the identity of the persons directly or indirectly holding more than one third of the share capital of such legal entity or voting rights exercised at the Shareholders' Meeting.

The conversion of shares from registered shares to bearer shares and reciprocally is carried out pursuant to the laws in force.

I - Assignment of registered shares may be carried out vis-à-vis third parties and the Company only by a transfer form, signed by the assignor or its agent and mentioned on the registers that the company keeps for such purpose.

In the event that the shares are not fully paid up, the transfer form must be signed, in addition, by the assignee.

The Company may request that the signatures of the parties be certified by a Legal Officer (Officier Public) or the Mayor of the domicile subject to exceptions that could result from legal provisions.

The transfer of shares without consideration or following a death is also carried out only by transfer mentioned on the share transfer register of the company upon giving evidence of the transfer under the legal conditions.

The assignees shall bear the transfer costs.

The shares on which payments are still required may not be transferred.

II- The transfer with consideration of the bearer shares is carried out by registration in the books of the related authorized intermediary/intermediaries.

III. - Any person or entity, acting alone or in concert, who holds or will hold, in any way whatsoever within the meaning of Articles L. 233-7 et seq. of the Commercial Code, a portion greater than or equal to 1% of the share capital or the voting rights, or any multiple of such percentage, including beyond the disclosure thresholds established by law and regulations, must inform the Company of the total number of shares and voting rights owned by such person or entity, as well as of any securities giving access to the capital and the voting rights that may be attached thereto, by means of a registered letter with return receipt requested sent to the registered office within five trading days from the date on which one of the thresholds was exceeded.

Such obligation also applies whenever the portion of capital or voting rights held becomes lower than one of the thresholds provided for in the paragraph above.

In the event of failure to comply with the provisions above, the penalties provided for by law for failure to meet the obligation to disclose that statutory thresholds have been exceeded shall also apply, at the request, recorded in the minutes of the shareholders' meeting, of one or more shareholders holding at least 1% of the capital or the voting rights of the Company.

Finally, the Company may keep, under the conditions provided for by the law, the shares it would have acquired in the context of universal transmission of estate or as a result of a court decision.

Article 8

Rights attached to the share

Each share shall give a right, in the ownership of the corporate assets and in the distribution of profits, to a fraction proportional to the portion of the issued shares; any share gives right, in particular, during the life of the company as during the liquidation, to the payment of the same net amount for any allocation or reimbursement, so that, if necessary, all tax exemptions as well as all taxation to which such allocation or reimbursement may give rise are grouped between all the shares without distinction.

The shareholders shall be bound, even vis-à-vis third parties, only up to the amount of shares they own; beyond, they may be subject to no call for capital.

Whenever it is necessary to own several shares in order to exercise any right, the owners who own isolated securities or a number lower than that required have no right against the Company; in such a case, the shareholders will have to take over responsibility of the grouping of the necessary number of shares.

Article 9

Payment of the cash shares

The amounts outstanding on the cash shares are called by the Management Board.

The called portions and the date, on which the corresponding amounts must be paid, are notified to the shareholders by registered mail sent to each of the shareholders, at least fifteen days before.

The shareholder who does not pay, on their due date, the installments due on the shares he holds, must automatically and without prior summons pay the company a late-payment interest calculated each day as from the due date, at the rate of eight percent (8 %) per year, without prejudice to specific performance provided for by law.
