PUBLICIS GROUPE ACQUIRES HEALTHCARE CONSULTING

Creating a new strategic consulting agency

Paris, December 20, 2010 — Publicis Groupe announced today that it has acquired Healthcare Consulting, a strategic consulting firm focused on the healthcare sector. This new agency will be renamed Publicis Healthcare Consulting, and will continue to be led by the agency’s founders François Sarkozy, Chairman, and Yannick Sabatin General Manager. Following the acquisition, François Sarkozy will act as a special advisor to Jean-Yves Naouri, Chief Operating Officer of Publicis Groupe. Jean-Yves Naouri also supervises Publicis Healthcare Communications Group, which is led by PHCG CEO Nick Colucci.

Headquartered in Paris, with an office in New York, Publicis Healthcare Consulting provides strategic consulting to healthcare and pharmaceutical companies. The agency’s key clients include GSK, BMS, sanofi-aventis, Saint Jude Medical and the Leem. Publicis Healthcare Consulting offers a comprehensive range of consulting solutions, organized around five core centers of expertise:

- Market access
- Promotion/distribution – new technology
- Emerging markets
- Research and technology transfer
- New industrial actors

With this acquisition, Publicis Groupe continues to strengthen its leadership in healthcare communications and strategic consulting. The Groupe has been very active in the healthcare and especially the digital healthcare sectors in 2010 with the recent acquisitions of In-Sync in North America (March 2010), Resolute and Elevator in the UK (May 2010), and Digital District in Germany (earlier this month). According to ZenithOptimedia estimates, pharmaceutical advertising accounts for 9% of global expenditure, representing US$41 billion in 2010. Advertising Age’s 2010 recently ranked the Publicis Groupe network of healthcare communications the first in the world.

Jean-Yves Naouri, Chief Operating Officer of Publicis Groupe, stated “I am delighted to welcome François Sarkozy and Yannick Sabatin to our expanding healthcare offering. The duo brings a very compelling yet innovative approach to serving clients and we will benefit immensely from their expertise”.
